

2002 FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

John A. Allocca, ScD, PhD, CCN - PhD in Clinical Nutrition from St. Martin University 1997, ScD in biophysics from Pacific Western University 1981; MS in bioengineering from Polytechnic University 1979. Certified Clinical Nutritionist from CCN Board, 1996. Worked as a medical research scientist since 1972. Biography in several Who's Who's.

Betty D. Anderson, RN, MA - Over 25 years of experience in stress/pain management and biofeedback treating injured people in a private setting.

Ralph L. Anderson, PhD - Over 30 years of experience evaluating and treating injured people in a private setting with multiple treatment approaches.

K. Roger Aoki, PhD - Received a PhD in Pharmacology from the University of California, Los Angeles and has worked in the pharmaceutical industry for 20 years. Dr. Aoki's experiences with the pharmacology and immunology of botulinum toxin has been 10 years.

Charles E. Argoff, MD - Co-Director, Headache and Pain Program, North Shore University Hospital, Manhasset & Syosset, New York. Assistant Professor of Neurology, New York University School of Medicine.

J. Hampton Atkinson, MD - Professor-in-Residence, Department of Psychiatry, University of California, San Diego (UCSD), and a co-Director of the University of California Center for Medicinal Cannabis Research and the UCSD HIV Neurobehavioral Research Center.

Robert L. Barkin, MBA, PharmD, DAAPM - Associate Professor Rush Medical College; Faculty of Anesthesiology, Family Medicine, Pharmacology, Psychiatry - The Rush Pain Center; Rush-Presbyterian St. Lukes Medical Center, Chicago; Pharmacologist North Shore Pain Center, Skokie, IL.

Samira K. Beckwith, LCSW, CHE - President and CEO of Hope Hospice in Ft Myers, FL. Has played a leadership role in end-of-life care at local, state and national levels for over twenty years.

Gary J. Bennett, PhD - Canada Senior Research Chair, Faculty of Dentistry and Department of Anesthesia, and Director of Pain Research MUHC Pain Centre, McGill University, Montreal, Quebec, Canada.

Hal Blatman, MD - Dr. Blatman is an alternative health care practitioner with a private practice that focuses on treating patients with Fibromyalgia and chronic myofascial pain disorders.

He is board certified in Occupational and Environmental Medicine and Pain Management.

Mark V. Boswell, MD, PhD - Associate Professor of Anesthesiology and chief of the Anesthesiology Pain Service at Case Western University School of Medicine and University Hospitals of Cleveland. He is the director of the fellowship program in pain management at CWRU/UH, and is board certified by the American Board of Anesthesiology/Pain Management, the American Academy of Pain Management and the American Board of Pain Medicine. Special interests include neuropathic pain, cancer pain and acupuncture.

David E. Bresler, PhD, LAc - Associate Clinical Professor, UCLA School of Medicine, Co-Director, Academy for Guided Imagery, MillValley, CA. Dean, Mind/Body/Spirit, University of Integrated Studies.

Christopher Brown, DDS, MPS - Past President of the AAPM, Chairman of Board of U.I.S. Qualified in the diagnosis and treatment of facial pain as a result of motor vehicle accidents with emphasis on a non-insurance based practice.

Jan M. Burte, PhD - Adjunct Professor, Long Island University, Department of Counseling & Development; Executive Director, Long Island Institute of Ericksonian Hypnosis; Past President, New York Society of Clinical Hypnosis; Certified Consultant ASCH; Editorial Review Panel, Time/Life Medical Video Series.

Betty Butler, CMP, MAC - National public speaker, author, artist, therapist™. Candidate for Masters in counseling. She is a grief facilitator, death educator, bereavement clown, hospice harpist volunteer. Currently works as Kid Counselor.

Martin K. Childers, MD, PhD - Associate Professor, University of Missouri School of Medicine. Director of Research, Missouri Rehabilitation Center at MT Vernon, University of Missouri.

Charles F. Cichon - President of the National Association of Drug Diversion Investigators. Former member of the Baltimore City Police Dept for 16 years. Currently is the Chief Compliance Analyst for the Maryland Medical Board, where he has worked in the Compliance Division since 1989.

Joseph "Rich" Cohen, DDS - Diplomate, AAPM and ABOP, Adjunct Assistant Professor at the UCLA Orofacial Pain Clinic, Director of Southwest Pain Management, and an orofacial pain consultant for the Mayo Clinic in Scottsdale, AZ.

Misha R. Cohen, OMD, LAc - Dr. Cohen is an internationally recognized leader and author in the Chinese Medicine field. She is a Research Specialist at UCSF and Research/Education Director at Quan Yin Healing Arts Center (SF).

Tracy J. Covington, PhD, QME - Clinical Psychologist specializing in Behavioral Medicine. As an assistant professor, she completed post-doctoral training at Loma Linda Medical Center. She has operated an interdisciplinary pain management facility for 8 years.

Scott Denny, DC, PhD, LAc - Past President AAPM; Fellow American Back Society; Diplomate American Board of Disability Analysis; Independent Medical Examiner.

W. John Diamond, MD - Board certified in Pathology and Medical Acupuncture. Adjunct Professor of Nursing, Orvis School of Nursing; University of Nevada, Reno; Director of Complementary and Alternative Medicine; Nurse Practitioners Post Graduate Course.

Barry Fox, PhD - Chairman of the American Nutraceutical Associations Consumer Health Council and a Professor of Anti-Aging at the University of Integrated Studies.

Brian J. Freund, MD - Qualified in medicine and dentistry with training in maxillofacial surgery. Co-Director of the Crown Institute in Toronto with a special interest in head and neck pain.

John D. Giglio, MA, JD - Prior to running the American Pain Foundation, John held senior positions involving law, advocacy and communication with two U.S. Senators, the American Cancer Society, the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization, a national public affairs firm, and a leading Washington law firm. John has a B.S. from Johns Hopkins, a M.A. from the Wharton School, and a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania.

Paula Lizak Gilchrist, LPT, DPM - Physical Therapist; Board Certified in Podiatric Surgery; Diplomate of the American Academy of Pain Management. Dr Gilchrist has been in private practice since 1983. She has lectured at colleges, local professional organizations as well as the private sector. She has been a contributing author to the Pain Practitioner.

James Giordano, PhD, DAAPM - Director of Pain Management, Integrating Medicine and Clinical Research Programs at Moody Health Science Center, Pasadena, TX. Director of Human Performance Program at Baylor Sports' Medicine Inst., Houston, TX. Associate Professor of Pathology & Physical Medicine, Texas Chiropractic College.

2002 FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

David M. Glick, DC - Private practice specializing in electrodiagnosis and manipulation with local regional anesthetic, within an interventional pain management group; lecturer of evoked potential techniques and clinical applications.

Jacob Green, MD, PhD - Director Southeastern Neuroscience Institute Pain Rehabilitation Clinic, Jacksonville, FL. Board Certified in Neurology and Pain Management. Authored three texts and fifty-five papers.

Gerald Q. Greenfield, Jr., MD - Graduate of the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. Board Certified in Orthopedic Surgery, Diplomate AAPM.

Berit P. Gundersen, PharmD - Director of Pre-Health Professional Education; and Associate Professor of Pharmacy Practice at University of the Pacific School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences.

A. Daniel Gutierrez, DC - Dr. A. Daniel Gutierrez is a chiropractor practicing in San Antonio specializing in CTS. He holds several board certifications including pain management, disability analysis and forensics.

Howard A. Heit, MD - Board Certified in Internal Medicine and Gastroenterology/Hepatology. Certified in Addiction Medicine and as a Medical Review Officer. Chronic Pain Specialist. Assistant Clinical Professor, Georgetown University.

Nelson Hendler, MD, MS - Authored 3 books, 29 medical textbook chapters and 51 articles. Clinical director of Mensana Clinic in Stevenson, MD, and Assistant Professor of Neurosurgery at Johns Hopkins University.

Karin H. Hilsdale, PhD, LAc - Addresses issues of pain and healing through three professional avenues: university teaching, training psychotherapists; practice of Traditional Oriental Medicine; and chaplain service in a university medical center.

Alan R. Hirsch, MD, FACP - Neurological Director of the Smell and Taste Treatment and Research Foundation in Chicago and Assistant Professor in the Departments of Neurology and Psychiatry at Rush-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Medical Center, is certified by the American Board of Neurology and Psychiatry in Neurology, Psychiatry, Geriatric Psychiatry, Pain Management and Addiction Psychiatry. Dr. Hirsch has authored over 200 scientific articles and three popular books: Dr. Hirsch's Guide to Scentational Weight Loss; Scentational Sex; and What Flavor is Your Personality?

Linda C. Hole, MD - Ordained healer and founder of QiWay, with nearly 20 years experience in wholistic medicine. Authored chapters on QiGong and KHT for the medical textbook: Alternative and Complementary Treatment in Neurologic Illness and for Pain Management: A Practical Guide for Clinicians 6th Edition; and has served on the faculties of the American Academy of Pain Management, American Holistic Medical Association, and World Congress of QiGong. She is also a graduate of the East West Academy of Healing Art, China Healthways Institute, and Princeton University.

Alan P. Hudson, PhD - Received his PhD from the City University of New York in 1978, then did postdoctoral research at the University of Paris and Southwestern Medical School (Dallas). Currently Professor of Microbiology (microbial molecular genetics) in the Dept Immunology and Microbiology, Wayne State University School of Medicine in Detroit.

Gary W. Jay, MD - DAAPM, FAAPM, Neurology/Pain Management. Medical Director, Pain Management and Rehabilitation Institutes, Lake Mary, Florida. President, Florida Academy of Pain Medicine.

Brenda Klass, PhD - Dr. Klass is a chronic pain patient herself. As a result of her pain and resulting disability, she founded Care Center Rehabilitation Pain Management, a multi-disciplinary, interdisciplinary, functional restoration pain program. The Center is located in Encino California and she has been involved with the treatment of chronic pain patients as well as training professionals to treat these difficult patients for 20 years.

Jonathan Kleefield, MD - A.B. Columbia University - 1966; MD University of Pennsylvania - 1970. Internship/Radiology Residency - L.I. Jewish Medical Center - 1971-1974. Neuro-radiology Fellowship - Mass. General Hospital 1976-1978. Director of Neuroradiology - Beth Israel Medical Center - 1989 to present.

Barbara L. Kornblau, JD, OT/L, FAOTA, DAAPM - Professor of Occupational Therapy and Public Health at Nova Southeastern University. She has a private law practice in Miami, FL. She has written numerous books, and journal articles on legal and ethical issues.

Dimitrios Kostopoulos, PT, PhD - Author of the book and video "The Manual of Trigger Point & Myofascial Therapy". He is the co-owner of Hands-On Physical Therapy in New York and focuses on various Manual Therapy approaches. Dr. Kostopoulos has extensive teaching, research and practice experience in the areas of Myofascial Dysfunction and Clinical Electrophysiology.

Amy M. Lang, MD - Volunteer Associate Clinical Professor of Rehabilitation Medicine at Emory University School of Medicine, and Medical Director of an outpatient management group, orthoREHAB Plus. She has extensive experience with the use of BOTOX® in treatment of myofascial pain syndrome.

Marcia Levetown, MD, FAAP - Board certified in Pediatrics and Palliative Medicine. Completed a critical care fellowship in 1993 and developed the award-winning Butterfly Program to meet the needs of chronically and critically ill patients in 1994.

Michael J. Lewandowski, PhD - Licensed clinical psychologist and is president of Pain Assessment Resources. He was principle developer of the Behavioral Assessment of Pain - Medical Stability Quick Screen (BAP-MSQS) and co-developer of the Behavioral Assessment of Pain questionnaire (BAP) which are utilized around the world and considered by many as the MMPI of pain assessment. He is President of Integrated Healthcare Resources in Reno, Nevada, an inter-disciplinary healthcare-organization, which provides comprehensive pain management, work hardening and functional restoration programs for injured workers and persons with chronic pain problems.

Michael W. Loes, MD - Assistant Professor University of Arizona. Graduated from University of California, Berkeley in Linguistics, Medical School at the University of Minnesota, Fellowship in Clinical Pharmacology. Certified by boards or qualifying exams in Internal Medicine, Pain Medicine, Pain Management, Alcohol and Chemical Dependency, Acupuncture, Clinical Hypnosis, Homopathy, Functional Medicine, and Disability Medicine. He is the Director of the Arizona Pain Institute in Phoenix and a consulting physician at SW Pain Management Associates and the Arizona Institute of Minimally Invasive Spine Care. He is the author of: Arthritis: The Doctor's Cure, Healing Sports Injuries Naturally, The Aspirin Alternative, The Healing Power of Jerusalem Artichoke Fiber and The Healing Response: Applying the 10 Principles and Laws of Healing.

Carol Lovejoy - Author of: Living in Two Worlds and A Spiritual Handbook for the New Millennium. Carol Lovejoy is a Medical Intuitive, Metaphysician and Counselor.

2002 FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

Victoria L. Magown, CMTPT - Specializes in pain management. Has been a Myofascial Trigger Point Therapist since 1983 and Board Certified since 1991. Received much of her training from Janet Travell, MD. She is Co-Director of MyoRehab and gives lectures and workshops.

Edward A. Maitz, PhD - Board Certified Neuropsychologist in private practice and has several university affiliations. He has co-authored several articles and presented more than 50 papers in the United States and Canada.

Petra Makela, BSc, MB ChB, MRCP - Following general medical training, commenced specialist training in neurology and neurological disability. Currently Research Registrar working in Phase I, II and III studies of cannabis-based medicinal extracts.

Steven B. Mann, PhD, DAAPM, DABPS - Director and CEO, Occupational Disability Management Centers, located in Vermont and New Hampshire. Author of: Being Ill: Personal and Social Meanings.

Rick Marinelli, ND, MACOM - Director of the Natural Medicine Clinic in Portland, OR; Consultant to the nutritional supplement industry and a popular seminar leader and teacher.

Marko Markov, PhD - PhD in Biophysics - Sofia University, Bulgaria. Professor, Dept. of Biophysics and Radiobiology. Research on biological effects of magnetic and electromagnetic fields since 1969. Organizer of several international projects on "Action of Electromagnetic Fields on Biological Systems". Author/co-author of 111 articles. Assoc. Editor of Journal of Electro and Magnetobiology. Co-organizer of the "Emerging Therapies" Symposium at XXIV BEMS Annual Meeting. Co-editor, Clinical Aspects of Bioelectromagnetic Medicine. Vice President of Research, EMF Therapeutics, Inc.

Richard S. Materson, MD - Psychiatrist serving as CMO at Memorial Hermann Continuing Care Corporation in Houston, TX. Founding Co-chair of the American Academy of Pain Management Board of Advisors, former President of American Academy of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation, a Leyland Kaiser fellow, and Board Member of The Texas Medical Center's Institute of Religion. With C. Stephen Bryrum, PhD, he is on the leading edge of using axiology in the treatment of pain patients.

James McKoy, MD - Staff Rheumatologist, Kaiser Permanente Medical Group, Inc, Hawaii; Assistant Clinical Professor, University of Hawaii, John Burns School of Medicine. Diplomate,

American Board of Internal Medicine; Diplomate, Subspecialty in Rheumatology, American Board of Internal Medicine,

Michael J. McLean, MD, PhD - Associate Professor, Department of Pharmacology, Vanderbilt University Medical Center. Director, Neuro-magnetics Research in the Department of Neurology, Nashville, TN. Associate Professor in the Department of Pharmacology at Vanderbilt University Medical Center in Nashville, TN. Director of Neuromagnetics Research in the Department of Neurology.

Carl McNeely, APRN, PNP - Practicing Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner, Health Care & Rehabilitation Services of Southeastern Vermont. Past President, American Academy of Pain Management.

John McPortland, DO, MS - Publishing record goes back 20 years in his search for a "Unified Field Theory," synthesizing osteopathic mechanisms with the endocannabinoid system. Clinical Assistant Professor at University of Vermont, and Osteopathic Program Leader at UNITEC, New Zealand.

Anthony B. Morovati, DC - Clinical Director, Beverly Hills Wave out patient surgery. Thirteen years of practice focused on non-invasive pain management and manipulation under anesthesia. Post Chairperson of Chiropractic Department at Thompson Memorial Hospital.

Neil Nathan, MD - Board Certified Family Physician who has specialized in pain management for over 20 years. He has recently completed a three year study of Workman's Compensation injured patients using osteopathic manipulation and injection techniques.

Linda L. Norton, PharmD - Director of Post Graduate Professional Education; and Associate Professor of Pharmacy Practice at University of the Pacific School of Pharmacy and Health Sciences.

William Notcutt, MB, ChB, FRCA - Qualified 1970 Birmingham, Consultant in Anaesthesia and Pain Management (acute, chronic, cancer) since 1982. Honorary senior lecturer Norwich University. Interests: PCA, pain services, back pain, cannabinoids, ethics.

Catherine O'Connell, PhD - Dr. O'Connell is in private practice in Phoenix, AZ. She has focused her practice in chronic pain for over 20 years and has developed and coordinated multidisciplinary pain programs in a variety of inpatient and out patient settings.

Iva Lim Peck, LAc, RN - Private practice in Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine; Instructor in Chinese Internal Martial Arts (Tai Chi Chua, Pa Kua Chang, Hsing-Yi Chuan).

Richard Peck, LAc, MBA - Private practice in Acupuncture and Chinese Medicine; Instructor in Chinese Internal Martial Arts (Tai Chi Chuan, Pa Kua Chang, Hsing-Yi Chuan).

George S. Pellegrino, CMTPT - Specializes in Pain Management. He has been a Board Certified Myofascial Trigger Point Therapist since 1997. In addition to being Co-Director on MyoRehab, he lectures and gives workshops.

John Peppin, DO - Board Certified: ABIM, AAPM, Board Eligible: AAHPC. Certified EPEC trainer. Full time pain and palliative medicine practice. Director Center for Bioethics, Pain Management and Medicine. Senior Editor, The Annals of Bioethics.

Michael K. Perry, CRNA, PhD, DAAPM - Private practice in pain clinics in Omaha and Fremont, Nebraska. Board Member AAPM, National Pain Data Bank, Consultant, Surveyor AAPM, Board Member of Nebraska Association of Nurse Anesthetists and Program Chairman for NANA.

Rodger K. Pflingsten, MA - Programmer since 1966 and web integrator since 1990. Specializes in web application design and advanced networking. President of Pflingsten Technology Group, Inc.

John Porter, MD - Founder and Medical Director of the Center for Pain and Rehabilitation.

Anna Ratka, PhD, PharmD - Associate Professor of the College of Pharmacy at Idaho State University. She teaches pharmacy students and conducts research on the role of steroids in response to pain and analgesia.

Scott Raven, PhD - Dr. Raven recently completed his PhD in Instructional Technology. He is a Consultant to AAPM in MIS and Outcomes Measurement.

Philip Robson, MB, MRCP, FRCPsych - Medical Director, GW Pharmaceuticals; Senior Research Fellow, Oxford University. In 1996, Dr. Robson was commissioned by the UK Government to assess the therapeutic potential of cannabis and its derivatives, and subsequently gave written and verbal evidence to the House of Lords Inquiry on this subject. Since January 2000 he has been organizing a clinical research program on behalf of GWP.

2002 FACULTY BIOGRAPHIES

Thomas J. Romano, MD, PhD, DAAPM, FACP, FACR - Rheumatologist in private practice in Martins Ferry, Ohio. Member of editorial staff of the Journal of Musculoskeletal Pain. Author of numerous articles in basic science and clinical medicine. Presently President of the Board of Directors of the AAPM as well as chairman of AAPM's Examination Committee.

Ethan Russo, MD - Clinical Neurologist/Researcher, Author of The Handbook of Psychotropic Herbs, and Editor-in-Chief of The Journal of Cannabis Therapeutics.

Francesca M. Russo, DC, B CAO - Graduated Palmer College of Chiropractic in Davenport, IA in 1995. After completing the postgraduate intern program at the Sweat Clinic for atlas orthogonal chiropractic in Atlanta, GA, she received her board certification in the atlas orthogonal program. Presently in private practice in Albuquerque, NM.

Arnold Sandlow, DC - Director of Chiropractic S.M.A.R.T. Institute. A graduate of Southern California University of Health Sciences (Formerly L.A.C.C.), 1979. Diplomates in Pain Management, Anti-Aging and Chiropractic Sports Medicine, Fellow American Association of Integrative Medicine. Board Qualified Chiropractic Orthopedist. Professor of Anti-Aging for the University of Integrative Medicine. Chapter Author - Pain Management Textbook and International Conference Lecturer.

Michael Schatman, PhD, DAAPM - Consulting Clinical Psychologist working with chronic pain for 16 years, the last 12 of which have involved consulting to an interdisciplinary chronic pain management clinic which he developed.

Marvin Schwartz, BSc, MSc, DDS - Co-founder of the Crown Institute in Toronto. He participates in clinical research in the field of head and neck pain, teaches at the University of Toronto and is a practicing Maxillofacial Surgeon.

Gabriel E. Selle, MD, MPH, MSc, PhD - A long time diplomat of the AAPM. Dr. Selle has been involved in the field of pain management for over 14 years. He has done extensive research, publications and presentations in the field of soft tissue pain. Dr. Selle has written 10 textbooks, published 82 articles and has given over 255 international conferences and seminars in the field.

Lawrence O. Short, PhD - Has been active in counseling and pain management for over 20 years. Currently in private practice in Kentucky and Texas. He has served the Academy as a Diplomate program surveyor and board member since 1992.

Raymond E. Sorensen, DO, FACOCA - Clinical Associate Professor of Anesthesia, College of Osteopathic Medicine, Medicine of Pacific, Pomona, CA. Clinical Instructor, Kirksville College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kirksville, MO. Assistant Professor of Anesthesia, Center of Health Science, College of Osteopathic Medicine, Kansas City, MO.

Maria Sulindro, MD - Board Certified, American Board of Anti-Aging Medicine; Diplomate, American Academy of Pain Management; Qualified, American Board of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation; Diplomate, Clinical Electromedical Research Academy. On the Medical Staff at Huntington Memorial Hospital.

Robert B. Supernaw, PharmD - Professor and Associate Dean of Curriculum at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in Amarillo Texas. He is also Editor-in-Chief of the American Journal of Pain Management.

Rev. Myrna C. Tashner, EdD, DAAPM, Reiki Master - Masters in Counseling Psychology from Arizona State University, doctorate in Counseling and Counselor Education specializing in counseling psychology and psychotherapy from West Virginia University; pre & post doctoral internships in hospital and mental health clinic settings, experience in independent and group practice of psychology. She is an ordained minister, a Reiki Master, a Diplomate of AAPM, and she has a cat.

Blake H. Tearman, PhD - Graduated from the University of Georgia's Clinical Psychology Program with specialization in medical psychology. Has published widely in the areas of medical rehabilitation, pain and anxiety disorders. Author of numerous psychometric instruments on pain and disability which are used throughout the U.S. and Canada. Current clinical and research interests include the assessment of disability, pain and deception/malingering.

Belinda Volz - Nine years in banking, three years as office manager of a large multi-practitioner OBGYN practice, four years as Dr. Brown's office manager. Author of several publications on building an insurance independent pain practice.

Mark A. Ware, BA, MBBS, MRCP, Msc - Assistant Professor in anesthesia and family medicine at McGill University. Scientific Director of the Canadian Consortium for the Investigation of Cannabinoids (CCIC). Member of the International Cannabinoid Research Society, the International Association for the Study of Pain, and the International Association for Cannabis as Medicine and the Canadian Pain Society.

John A. Warren, PharmD - Currently the Director of Pharmacy at the Northern Nevada Adult Mental Health Services. Board certified in psychiatric pharmacy practice. Has more than 20 years practice experience.

Thomas Watson, MEd, PT, FAAPM - 29 years practicing physical therapy. Past President of the Pain Special Interest Group APTA; Liaison to APTA; Fellow Faculty and Board of Advisors for AAPM, Doctoral Student in Physical Therapy; lecturer, Clinician.

Kathryn A. Weiner, PhD - Executive Director and Co-Founder of the American Academy of Pain Management; has been inducted into the John C. Liebeskind History of Pain Collection, UCLA Biomedical Library; serves as a medical ethics subject matter specialist for the Northern California Cancer Center; is the Editor of the quarterly newsletter, The Pain Practitioner; is published in the edited books: Pain Management: A Practical Guide for Clinicians and Innovations in Pain Management; has authored articles and has lectured at multidisciplinary pain management meetings nationwide.

Sandra Wright, RN, BA, CHPN - Community Liaison/Educator for Yolo Hospice in Davis, California. A certified Hospice RN who has worked in hospice for over ten years. Has presented at state and national levels and is EPEC Program certified.

Anthony T. Yeung, MD - President of the American Academy of Minimally Invasive Spinal Medicine and Surgery. He developed the Yeung Endoscopic Spine System for Endoscopic Spine Surgery and is an adjunct professor of Minimally Invasive Spine at the University of New Mexico School of Medicine. He has published and lectured internationally.